

Calling... is an interactive web experience that explores fuzzy topics such as love, talent, and struggle, using astrology theory as a prompt to generate responses with LLM's text generation.

Motivation

In an age of increasing uncertainty, the wave of modern mysticism is ever-present. Astrology, as a form of mysticism, serves as a way to explore our confusion, heal our anxiety, and instill hope by pointing us to the UNIVERSE.

Astrology posits that everyone's birth chart illustrates their life map, marking an individual's talents, life purpose, and characteristic traits. Understanding the messages of birth charts can be a valuable approach to exploring ourselves.

Hi, this is Chen 🍊 your psychic today

What if Psychic using LLM?

A psychic is a person who understands the meanings of people's birth charts and is able to read messages from the UNIVERSE. In this digital world, with AI emerging, how would a psychic use AI to conduct astrology readings? In this project, Chen explores how a psychic can make use of LLM's power to do astrology reading.

STEPS TO

Step 1: Reading people's birth information from Python

[5] from kerykeion import Report, AstrologicalSubject report = Report(YourAstrologicalSubject)
report.print_report()

← Kerykeion report for you →

Step 2: Based on astrology, each topic is influenced by an individual's planetary signs and house positions. For example, in matters of love, it usually involves a person's Venus (attraction), Mars (passion), and Moon (intimacy in relationships). Therefore, I wrote the prompt to include information on relevant parameters to explore the topic of love.

Last: The LLM (Ollama 2) will generate the texts based on the prompt.

```
chenji -- ollama run llama2 -- 80x22
-- ollama run llama2

LLM supports customization

In this project, I integrated a LLM API (Ollama) with p5.js to create an interactive web experience that performs as a psychic, conducting astrology readings for others.

We can also do this for ourselves. Technology makes things more accessible and supports personalization. We can use Python to generate our birth charts, and then prompt an LLM to interpret what they mean. In this way, we become our own psychics.

When feeling lost,
Look toward the moon and stars.
